

LRI/BIR

Bachelor in International Relations

Shape the future of the world.

Why study this program at Tec de Monterrey?

Studying International Relations at Tec means taking an active role in today's international arena. From your very first semester you get involved with embassies, international organizations, consultancies and civil society groups.

You learn by negotiating, solving problems, and proposing real solutions to global challenges. You become part of a community committed to understanding the world and transforming it through knowledge.

Is this your path?

If you're interested in diplomacy, driven to understand global challenges, and inspired by the possibility of creating impact through multinational companies, international organizations, or civil society.

LRI at Tec is your platform to make it happen!

Is this for you?

- Do you love discovering new cultures and speaking other languages?
- Are you curious about politics, economics, and global issues?
- Do you ask, "How can I change this?"
- Are you someone who connects ideas across diverse contexts?
- Do you see yourself working at the UN, in embassies, or at global foundations?

Career paths offer endless opportunities. Here are some examples:

- Government at three levels: federal, state, and local.
- Multinational companies and businesses with international presence.
- Consulting.
- Media and communications.
- Civil society (NGOs, foundations).
- Research and academia.

What makes this program unique at Tec?

- Interdisciplinary training, incorporation of cutting-edge technological tools, the use of artificial intelligence.
- Analysis of risk and opportunities in different regions of the world.
- Vision oriented towards justice, equity and social transformation to address global challenges.
- Internationalists with the ability to link with the public and private sector.
- Preparation to make an impact in the public sector, private sector, and international organizations.

Key skills you'll develop

- Strategic thinking and international analysis.
- Ethical perspectives and commitment to the common good.
- Global risk evaluation.
- Intercultural communication.
- Design of sustainable solutions.
- Negotiation, leadership, and future scenario planning.

Imagine this:

Represent your country's interests at a summit or conference of an international organization, or design solutions with a global impact from a think tank or consulting firm in London.

At Tec, that future starts today.

You'll be part of something bigger
