CHAPTER I

CHAPTER I

Objective and Scope of Application

Article 1

In order to carry out its academic and educational activities with its characteristic levels of excellence, Tecnológico de Monterrey offers financial aid programs to support students who have the necessary abilities to complete their studies successfully and who meet the requirements of such programs.

Article 2

The objective of these regulations is to provide the bases, requirements and procedures for awarding and maintaining financial aid of Tecnológico de Monterrey, in order to:

- a. Streamline the financial aid application, award and maintenance processes for students who have been admitted and apply for or receive such aid.
- b. Facilitate the application, award, formalization, renewal, administration and transfer processes of the financial aid programs for the national schools.
- c. Regulate and implement the financial aid programs in accordance with the budget allocated for this purpose.
- d. Inform participants of their rights and obligations.

The policies and regulations herein refer to the graduate level.

When in these regulations a different name is given to an administrative unit, meaning any office, department or unit for attention or service, defined before the start of the validity of the same, any matters being processed will be dealt with by the administrative unit with the new name.

Article 3

Each school is responsible for awarding financial aid to graduate students in accordance with its budget or other funds allocated for the same reason, ensuring that all aid is awarded impartially and considering the criteria set forth herein.

Article 4

Each school is responsible for assigning financial aid to graduate students and the Office of Scholarships and Financial Aid informs applicants of the result, through the official system.

CHAPTER II

CHAPTER II

CHAPTER III

CHAPTER III

Award of Financial Aid

Article 9

Each national graduate school has a limited budget for awarding scholarships and tuition agreements to the students who meet the established conditions and requirements.

Article 10

Each national graduate school awards the financial aid percentage based on:

- a. Budget availability.
- b. Fulfillment of the criteria defined herein.

Article 11

The Office of Scholarships and Financial Aid informs each applicant of the result of their financial aid application, through the official system, by the official deadline established in the call for applications, as long as the student's application meets the established criteria.

Article 12

Graduates from a graduate program studied with a scholarship awarded by Tecnológico de Monterrey and who apply again for a scholarship to study another graduate program, at the same academic level, will not be candidates to receive it.

Article 13

In an academic period, students can have just one type of financial aid. If a student requires additional aid, it must come from external funds.

Article 14

Scholarship holders can maintain their scholarship when they change from one site to another within the same national graduate school, in the case of the same academic program, and have the authorization of the director of the program to which they wish to transfer and of the director of the current program.

Article 15

Graduates who studied, and graduated from, a graduate program with financial aid and apply again for financial aid to study a program at a different level of education, are eligible to receive financial aid.

Article 16

Applicants must confirm their acceptance of the financial aid awarded on the dates defined in the call for applications in effect by submitting the duly signed institutional letter of commitment. This letter of commitment refers to: the duration of the financial aid, academic average to be maintained, academic load per period and activities to be completed according to the type of financial aid allocated.

Article 17

Financial aid lasts solely for the academic periods in which it was allocated. Therefore, applicants who wish to postpone their entry into an academic program will have to complete the financial aid application process again.

Article 18

The total financial aid awarded to students corresponds solely to the total number of courses (or credits) included in the curriculum for which such aid was requested.

Article 19

To receive the financial aid awarded, students must study their program without interruption.
